

SAA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ANDREW COPPIN

Andrew has over 18 year's professional experience in the area of financial services. Having commenced his career at McIntosh Securities, which later formed part of the Merrill Lynch Group, Andrew has been actively involved in the area of Private Wealth Management since 1995. Having worked with Merrill Lynch in retail and institutional equities, both domestically and internationally, Andrew went on to further his career as a Senior Financial Adviser with Johnson Taylor Potter, a firm which later merged with Bell Potter in 2001.

Andrew's progression into executive management commenced with Bell Potter where he fulfilled the role of State Manager (WA and NSW), as well as acting as the General Manager for national business development over a number of years.

Following this, Andrew was appointed to the positions of Executive Director and Head of Private Wealth at Patersons Securities Ltd, where he worked for two years, managing and growing their national business. In 2009, Andrew founded Coppin and Partners under his own AFSL, a boutique wealth management firm for high net wealth private and corporate clients. Coppin and Partner merged with Wilson HTM in February of 2011. This coincided with his appointment as the Head of Private Wealth Management, before subsequently being appointed as Managing Director in October 2011.

Andrew holds a Professional Diploma in Stockbroking and is registered as a Master Stockbroker of the Stockbrokers Association of Australia (SAA), where he also sits as a Director on the SAA board.
