

SAA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

GRAHAME PRATT

Grahame graduated from the University of New South Wales with a Bachelor Commerce (Accounting) and Bachelor of Laws.

Grahame entered the equities markets in 1986, after practising as a solicitor for three years.

Grahame joined ABN AMRO Australia in 2001 as Head of Sales Trading and Trading and a member of the Equity Management Committee. In April 2003, Grahame became Head of Equities Australia and New Zealand and a member the Australian Management Committee. In March of this year, ABN AMRO was taken over by the Royal Bank of Scotland. In June of this year, Grahame became Co-Head of Markets – Australia.

Grahame is now a member of the Asian Equity Management Team and a Director of the Securities & Derivatives Industry Association Limited.